

I am so grateful/in awe of the love you have shown to me, your friends, your family, your cats and community over this past year. I feel seen, safe, happy, productive, inspired, honored to know you, and I know that's how you make everyone else feel as well. It brings me such joy to celebrate your birthday with you at one of my favorite places in the world!

I love making music/life with you and think you have chosen a fantastic crew of people with which to do it, including Cat Daddy. You are so special to me and I hope we can celebrate many more birthdays together . . . infinity more! You are an amazing bandmate, band leader, songwriter, sweet pea, cat mom, neighbor, teacher, bobcat, worker, learner, feeler, collaborator, feedback giver, all-around communicator.

I love you so much!
